VOLUME NUMBER 12

A. J. Smith

THE degree of success in any enterprise depends upon the support given it. George Washington, the illustrious Father of our Country, himself, attained to success only through loyal support from his countrymen. So, with this, our own special problem, the publication of the 1932 EL RECUERDO, the co-operation of the entire school with the Staff has been necessary to produce a successful book. To that spirit of co-operation—from student body, faculty and administration—we owe any degree of success we may have achieved. We, the Staff, hope only that our efforts will gratify your expectations and furnish you a lasting and pleasing record of the year's activities.

IN George Washington, whose bicentennial the world pleases this year to honor, we find embodied those ennobling characteristics of wisdom, sympathy, leadership, and high ideals of service, which earned him rightfully the proud title, "Father of His Country." Beside the name of Washington, we feel it fitting to place the name of one in our midst in whom we see repeated these characteristics—a man who leads firmly but understandingly, unhesitating but patiently, and who leaves the mark of his personality upon every student who knows him. To Mr. LaZelle Smith the Twelfth Edition of EL RECUERDO is gratefully dedicated.

The Class of '32 started their memorable year by electing as their officers: Phil Creaser, President; Jack Donnelly, Vice-President; Lisle Shoemaker, Secretary; and Dwight Freymiller, Treasurer.

The Class sponsored two dances, the first one a school dance, and the second an exclusive Senior dance, and then the gay whirl of a novel Sport Prom, Ditch Day, and the Senior play, brought us to Commencement, where two new customs were introduced: Caps and Gowns, and outdoor Commencement Exercises.

The Seniors wish to express their sincere gratitude to their advisers, Miss Eva McCarthy and Mr. LaZelle Smith, and to the teachers who have guided us through four eventful years at G. U. H. S.

Of the 573 students enrolled in Grossmont, about sixty-eight per cent are members of the Associated Student Body. The new Commission type of government adopted last Spring is proving a practical success. Classes and organizations have worked this year in almost perfect harmony, to give the student organization the most successful year in its history.

HI-Y

The local chapter of the Hi-Y, which is an organization sponsored by the County Y. M. C. A. under the direction of Mr. Evarts, County Secretary, applies well at Grossmont the purpose of the organization: "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." Grossmont chapter was founded in 1927 and has now a membership of sixty in the combined junior and senior divisions.

During the first quarter of this year, the Y enlisted the aid of all Freshman boys to repair the Grossmont "G," made by the chapter last year. Beside regular activities, including sponsoring group study of vocations under leadership from local business men, it held the annual Grossmont Fathers' and Sons' banquet in April. Joint meetings were held during the year with Point Loma and Escondido Hi-Y's, and with the local Girl Reserve chapters. They were, also, hosts January 17-19 to the County Hi-Y Conference.

CLUB ESPAÑOL

En la primera reunión del Club Español, George Washington fue elegido presidente, Grace Jones vice-presidente, y Corina Goldsberry secretaria y tesorera. Más tarde el club recibió los miembros nuevos. Antes de las vacaciones de Pascuas, una tertulia fue dada y los estudiantes españoles recibiendo grados de B o mejor fueron invitados. La cena y tertulia fueron un gran éxito.

El Club Español va a tener una tertulia a la playa o un viaje por barco muy cerca del fin la escuela.

NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY

The Natural History Society, popularly known as the Biology Club, is a new organization at Grossmont. Its officers are: Lyle Prescott, president; Randolph Woods, vice-president; Mary Peace Romig, secretary-treasurer; Nadine Brown, librarian, and Elizabeth Flournoy, reporter. Miss Winifred King is adviser.

Such studies as zoology, botany, geology and microscopy are used as individual projects.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization combining state groups composed of local chapters in high schools, having the purpose of instructing the future farmers of the nation in better farm methods.

Officers of the Grossmont Chapter are: President, Edward Swain; Vice-President, Harry Mote; Secretary-Reporter, Robert Rogers; Treasurer, Lloyd Harwood; and Stand Manager, Raymond Toynton. Mr. L. T. Simmons, Mr. R. Brown, and Mr. W. Holloway are advisers.

Of the sixty members of the Grossmont Chapter, eighty per cent are carrying productive home projects. President Ed Swain has one hundred stands of bees, valued at $500, and Robert Rogers has approximately one hundred hogs, valued at $600.

From the observer's standpoint, the most interesting work of the F. F. A. is the judging. Teams have represented the school this year in livestock, dairy cattle, and poultry judging, taking first and second places at the Imperial Valley Fair, and first place (in poultry) at the Perris Valley Fair. Finals and semi-finals in judging contests, at Los Angeles and Sacramento, were yet to be entered as the Annual went to press.

The enrollment of this organization includes most of the boys in the Ag department, who hold the elementary degree of "Green Hand"; the boys holding the advanced degree of "Junior Farmer" are: Arthur Gard, Kenneth Hollenbeck, Homer Higbee, Lowell Twedt, Willis Cornelius, Ed Swain, Harry Mote, Ralph Stewart, Jack Graves, Robert Sayles, Ray Toynton, Lloyd Harwood, Ralph Kephart, Robert Rogers.

FOOTHILL FARMERETTES

This girls' Agricultural organization, which specializes in landscape gardening and plant judging, has the following officers: President, Alta Stuart; Vice-President, Ruth Mercer; Secretary-Treasurer, Lura Barnhart; Reporter, Bernice Robeson; Adviser, Mr. R. Brown.

Two teams were entered in judging contests this year at Chaffee. The Citrus judging team won second place in a contest at San Bernardino in February.

Enrollment includes: Lura Barnhart, LaVerne Barnhart, Bernice Robeson, Alta Stewart, Ruth Stewart, Hariett Leslie, Harriet Kinghorn, Ruth Mercer, Helen Jenkins, Margaret Gunter, Hazel Benton.

SHOPS

AUTO SHOP. There are fifty-eight students enrolled in Mr. Eliz Piazzoni's Auto Shop classes, an increase over the enrollment of the past several years. The boys have done much practical work this year, their triumph being the rebuilding of a badly smashed LaSalle automobile. They work on their own cars and those of faculty members, learning to perform every function from valve-grinding to fender straightening. Also, they make their own tools and instruments.

GENERAL MECHANICS. The forty-seven students enrolled for study under Mr. E. W. Kenrick specialize in blacksmithing, concrete, pump and water systems, surveying, the making of implements and the construction of gas and electric motors. All the shop classes make splendid showings in the Spring exhibit.

MECHANICAL DRAWING. Sectional drawings of motors has engrossed most of the time of the Mechanical Drawing students, under the guidance of Mr. Kenrick. Although there are but sixteen students taking this course, they show remarkable skill and talent in the work.

SPEECH DEPARTMENT

The National Forensic League, local chapter, is in its second year. Edna Swink is its president; Russell Smith, vice-president, and David Smith, secretary-treasurer. Membership is earned by points secured in inter-scholastic competition. Besides the above, Harry Garfield, Janet Miller and Velma Shepard are members.

Speech activities this year include: The annual Constitution Oratorical Contest, sponsored by the Los Angeles Times. Won by David Smith—who took second place in the district finals, April 15 at Sweetwater; second place—Barbara Freeman; third—Betty McLean.

DEBATE: Two each with Army-Navy Academy and San Diego High School. Won one; lost three. Debaters were Edna Swink, David Smith, Harry Garfield (2); Phil Anderson, Russell Smith (1). Four of these were scheduled to debate at the University of Redlands May 13-14.

DECLAMATION: Local contest won by Louise Cory—to represent Grossmont at Redlands—second place, Janet Miller; third, Betty McLean.

VACHER CUP and EXTEMPORANEOUS CONTESTS—late in May.

AG ORATORY contests—Southern California, Chino and El Monte—third place, Dave Smith.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The Music Department under the leadership of Mrs. Merle C. Donohue and Mr. Edward Ortiz has played an important part in school life this year—both vocally and instrumentally. Beside the regular organizations, two additional groups, the Instrumental Trio and the Double Quartet, have represented the department on many occasions.

The principal effort this year of all organizations was concentrated on the Second Annual Spring Concert, May 6. Here band, orchestra, chorus of one hundred mixed voices, and members of a sixteen-hand piano ensemble combined to make the concert a production of lasting appeal. Also, in the Annual Christmas Pageant, the facilities of the department were employed, combining with other departments in the presentation of Grossmont's traditional nativity celebration.

THE BAND, directed by Mr. Ortiz, has flourished mightily in the two short years of its existence. With Drum Major Barbara Freeman, the Band has appeared at many athletic events. It will be remembered for the fine interpretive music played in the Fall Concert as well as for its performance over Radio KGB, and in the Spring Concert.

THE ORCHESTRA, conducted by Mrs. Donohue, has been in constant evidence at plays, assemblies, and programs. Both junior and senior divisions were used in the Spring Concert, as well as in the Washington's Birthday Bicentennial program.

THE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB made many appearances this year. Its officers are: Vera Marshall, President; Jane Wells, Secretary-Treasurer. The girls have appeared before clubs in La Mesa, El Cajon and Lakeside, at the Naval Hospital and over Radio KGB. They joined forces with other music groups in the Spring Concert, producing the cantata, "Taras," by Decker.

THE BOYS' GLEE CLUB, newly organized, replaces the former Boys' Chorus. Byron Lindsley is its President, Paul Gaston, Secretary-Treasurer. The boys, too, have made numerous public appearances, their outstanding performance being noted in the Spring Concert.

DRAMATICS

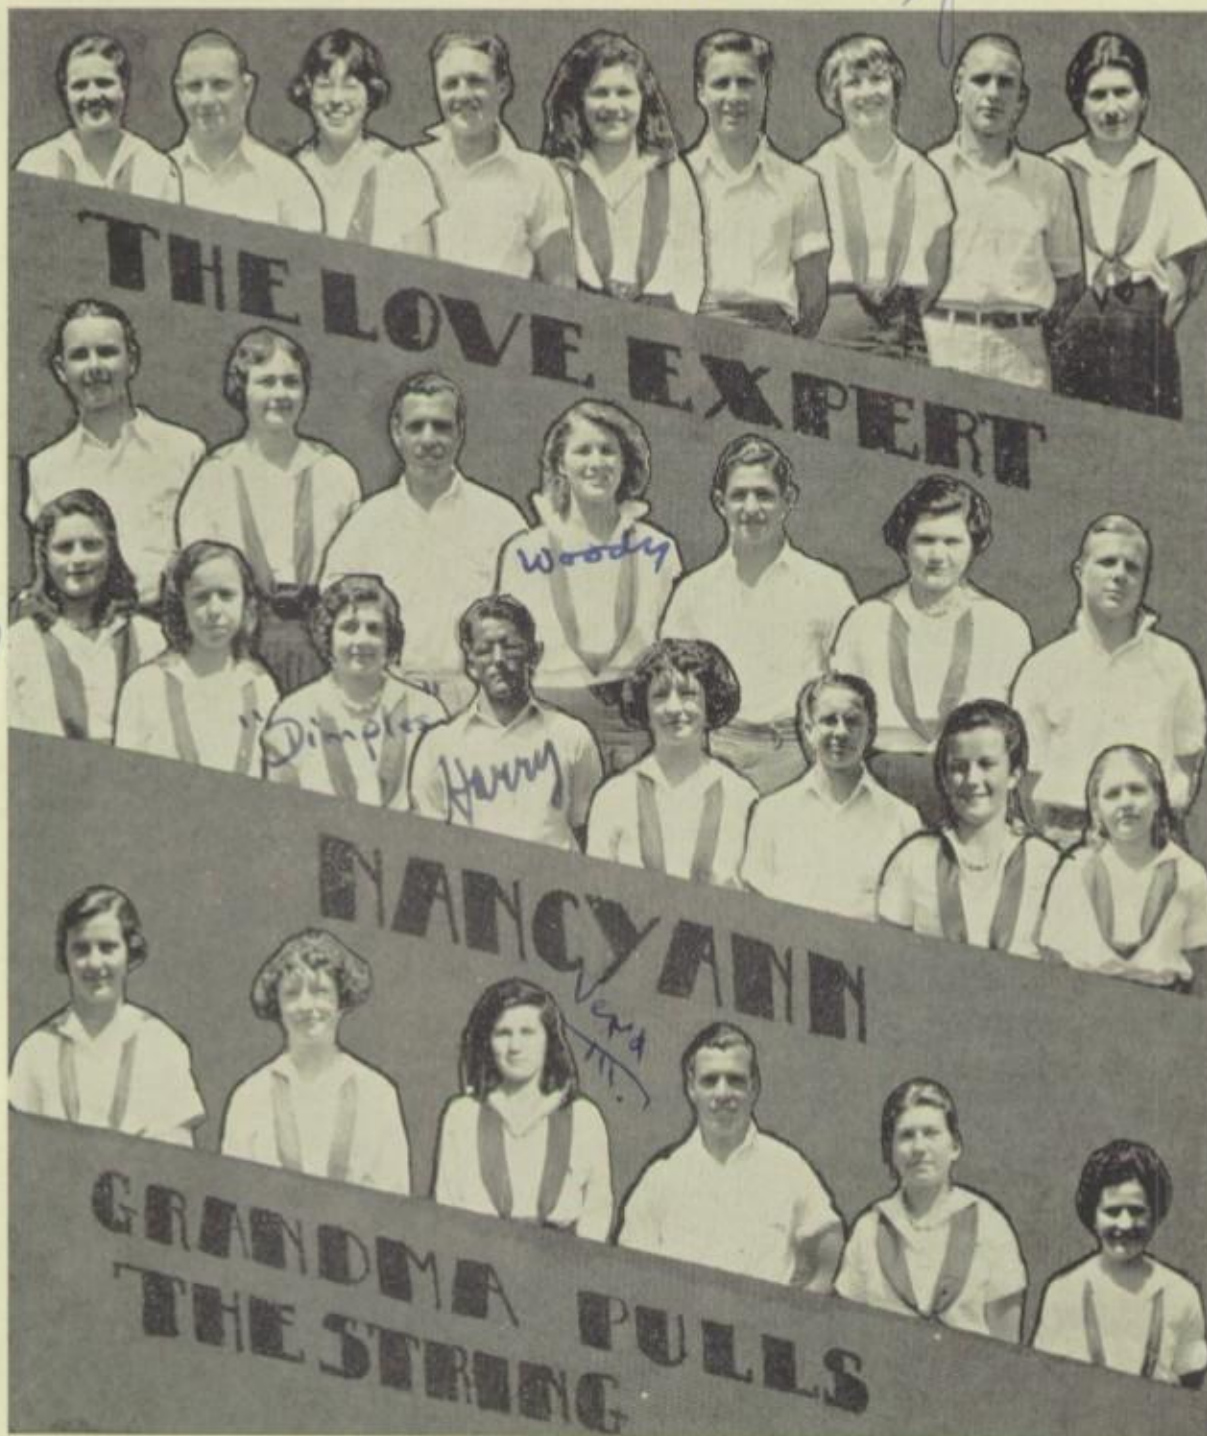

The first Associated Student Body play was the "Love Expert," by John Kirkpatrick, presented November 24. The story of the play is that of a young lady who, unable to decide between two candidates for her affections, asks the advice of the "love expert," a columnist in the evening paper, Miss Alice, who arrives in professional capacity, bringing with her her fiance. In the confusion arising from conflicting advice, Miss Alice, the expert, loses her fiance to her young client. Vera Marshall, Phil Parker, Lois Masterson, Helen Smith, Phil Creaser, Betty McLean, Byron Lindsley, Kenneth Blucher, Jane Wells, and Virgil Swoboda gave an excellent performance.

"Grandma Pulls the String" was Grossmont entry in the one-act play tournament at Russ Auditorium February 13. The cast was composed of the picked performers chosen from three complete casts who performed before a committee of judges in the local auditorium. Olive Hockaday, Don Pearson, Vera Marshall, Vera Long, Lois Masterson and Nanette Coutts were chosen.

On April 15 was given the second student body play, "Nancy Ann," by Heyward—a story of the tribulations and triumphs of a little debutante who, tiring of the control of four aunts, seeks dramatic prowess on her own account. The large cast of fifteen students was headed by Ruth Marshall and Don Pearson, and ably supported by Don Lindes, Frances Bagby, Fern Muller, Iona Wolters, Harriet Garfield, Olive Hockaday, Eleanor Lewis, Margaret Cave, Louise Cory, Russell Smith, Lloyd Smith, Lisle Shoemaker, and Harry Garfield.

Two dramatics classes this year have accommodated the large number of students interested in this study. These have, in addition to regular class work, presented several skits and one-act plays for outside organizations, notably "The Wedding" and "The Trysting Place" for community Masonic groups.

The Senior play, scheduled for the first week in June, was not selected as the Annual went to press.

LOVE EXPERT: Helen Smith, Kenneth Blucher, Betty McLean, Philip Parker, Vera Marshall, Philip Creaser, Jane Wells, Byron Lindsley, Lois Masterson.

ATHLETICS

Grossmont's athletics this year were more successful than ever before.

FOOTBALL season started with only fair prospects, but after losing the first league game, the team fought its way into a tie for the league championship by upsetting the powerful Coronado team in the most exciting game of the season. The co-operation of the squad with Coach Mashion and the ability to "click" when necessary made the season a success.

BASKETBALL season began with dim prospects. The teams soon rounded into championship form, however, to win several trophies, the most coveted of which was the "all-round team trophy" awarded to the class B team in the A. A. U. tournament. The Varsity and class D teams tied for league championships, and the class C won the championship in its division undisputed.

TRACK this year was the most successful in Grossmont athletic history. The Varsity and class C teams won the Southern League Championship in a very convincing manner.

As the BASEBALL season is not finished as this Annual goes to press, it is impossible to print all results. Our team looked to be one of the strongest ever to represent Grossmont on the diamond, judging by early-season scores.

More enthusiasm was shown in TENNIS this year than ever before. Many students were out for this sport, boys and girls alike. Norris West won the boys' tournament locally, and Lillian Barnett the girls', these students thereby earning the right to represent Grossmont in the Southern League Tournament.

GIRLS' SPORTS

THE VARSITY CLUB is made up of all girls earning a letter. To earn a letter the girls have to participate in all major sports and at least one minor sport. Members of this club are Ruth Gibbs, Jean Fuller, Mabel Rapp, Alice Gould, Harriet Garfield, Velma Shepard, Rhoda Fuller, Lillian Barnett, Dorothy Church, Florence Fansher.

THE GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION is composed of all girls who have participated in two or more major sports. The President is Ruth Gibbs; Secretary-Treasurer, Florence Fansher.

VOLLEY BALL is the first sport of the year, hence interest is usually high; this year the games were particularly good. The Junior team won the championship.

In BASKETBALL, each class had two teams, an A team and a B team, the exception being in the Senior class where there were one B and two A teams. Competition was keen and games were all close and exciting. The two Senior A teams and the Sophomore A team tied for the championship in that division, while the Freshmen won the undisputed championship in the B division.

HOCKEY is the girls' hardest sport offered at Grossmont; hence Miss Josephine Kollmyer, instructor, picked only two teams from the entire school. The two teams tied in the three games that were played.

TENNIS drew a large amount of interest this year, and as a result, two singles, one doubles, and one mixed doubles tournaments were held. Dorothy Church won the first singles and Lillian Barnett the second singles tournament. Lillian Barnett, Alice Gould and Harriet Garfield were the girls' representatives in the county tournament.

OLYMPIC BOUND was the name of this year's Girls' Physical Education program. Its success was due mainly to Miss Kollmyer's untiring efforts and the fine co-operation of all girls of the department. The program represented numbers typical of almost every country represented in the 1932 Olympic Games.

BASEBALL, being the season's last sport, was unfinished as the Annual went to press.

HUMOR

Just So!

Betty: What a wonderful place for a picnic, kids.

Lloyd: Yeah, I s'pose. Two million spiders and four million ants can't be wrong.

Mr. Clark: Do you think paper can be used effectively to keep people warm?

Charles: I should say so! The last report card I got kept the family hot for a week!

Miss Cooke: Can you tell me the last words of Webster?

Edith: Yes, Mam; Zymotex, Zyrian, Zythem, and Zythepsary. They are from the 1932 edition.

Mrs. Donohue: "What's the matter with your singing? You are simply screeching."

Muffy: "Only hitting on one tonsil."

Woozy

Gertie: What's the matter?

Florence: Nothing. Just a little dizzy from reading a circular letter.

Officer: "Don't you see that sign, 'Fine for parking'?"

Deck: Yes, officer, I see it and heartily agree with it."

That Would Do

Mr. Kenrick: How is sawdust made?

Tenney: With a saw and—

Mr. Kenrick: Come, come, use your head!

Misplaced

Alberta: I'm groping for words.

Pete: Well, you don't expect to find them around your neck, do you?

Paths of Glory

Zola: Do you like O. Henry?

Connie: I can't stand it; the peanuts stick in my teeth.

Winter Quarters

Marcella: Where do all the bugs go in winter?

Dolly: Search me!

Marcella: No, thanks. I just wanted to know.
